Every Thing On It by Shel Silverstein - Read-Aloud Revival

"Every Thing On It" was chosen as the book's titular poem in part because of the lively art that accompanied it. A boy — who has asked for a hot dog with "everything on it" — holds a bun piled sky high with a basketball hoop, a snake, a hat, an umbrella, you name it.

Every Thing on It Quotes by Shel Silverstein

Selected poems from Every Thing On It, by Shel Silverstein "The Ball Game" The elephant played second base, And the laughing hyena played third. The two little leeches sat out in the bleachers, Quite shocked by the language they heard. The kangaroo leapt and the crocodile wept Because they would not let him play.
